

Day trips from Las Vegas

Sorted by drive time from the Strip.

Trip	Drive	Best time	Cost
Red Rock Canyon	25 to 30 minutes	October to May; summer only at sunrise	Per-vehicle entry fee
Seven Magic Mountains	25 minutes	Sunrise or late afternoon, any season	Free
Lake Mead and Boulder City	35 minutes	Spring and autumn; summer for boating	Lake Mead National Recreation Area: $25 per vehicle for seven days. Boulder City is free.
Hoover Dam	40 to 45 minutes	All year (mornings in summer)	Paid parking in the garage
Goodsprings and the Pioneer Saloon	40 minutes	Any time	Free
Mount Charleston	45 minutes	Summer (20 to 30 °F cooler than the city) and winter for snow	Mostly free
Valley of Fire State Park	1 hour	October to April	$10 per Nevada vehicle, $15 for out-of-state vehicles
Death Valley National Park	2 hours to Furnace Creek	November to March	$30 per vehicle
Grand Canyon West (Skywalk)	2 hours 15 minutes to 2 hours 30 minutes	Spring and autumn	Run by the Hualapai Tribe, not the National Park Service: entry packages are bought separately, and the Skywalk costs extra
Zion National Park	2 hours 40 minutes	April to June, September to November	$35 per vehicle
Bryce Canyon National Park	4 hours	May to October; snow in winter	$35 per vehicle
Grand Canyon South Rim	4 hours 15 minutes to 4 hours 30 minutes	March to May, September to November	$35 per vehicle